NATURE & WONDER

FOOD & CULTURE

Gardens by the Bay

2–3 Hours

10 min walk from MBS

- Explore the iconic Supertree Grove — 18 towering vertical gardens up to 50 meters tall with an aerial skyway
- Visit the Cloud Forest for a stunning 35-meter indoor waterfall and rare highland plants from around the world
- Don't miss the Flower Dome, the world's largest glass greenhouse featuring Mediterranean and arid flora
- Dine at Satay by the Bay — an outdoor hawker market with 15+ stalls, waterfront views, and authentic local delicacies
- Head to Jurassic Nest Food Hall for a mix of Michelin-recognized and casual eats in air-conditioned comfort, all wrapped in Jurassic theme
- Free nightly Garden Rhapsody light and sound show at 7:45 PM and 8:45 PM — best viewed from the grove

Go at sunset to see the gardens in daylight and stay for the light show.

ArtScience Museum & SkyPark

 2-4 Hours

 On-site at MBS

- Explore the lotus-shaped ArtScience Museum with world-class rotating exhibitions and teamLab's immersive digital art
- Head up to the SkyPark Observation Deck for panoramic 360-degree views of the Singapore skyline
- Catch the free Spectra light and water show nightly from the Event Plaza below
- Browse The Shoppes at Marina Bay Sands for luxury retail, celebrity chef restaurants, and a canal boat ride

 Book SkyPark tickets online in advance to skip the queue.

 CULTURE & HISTORY

 FOOD & CULTURE

Chinatown Heritage District

 2–3 Hours

 10 min by taxi / MRT

- Wander colorful Pagoda Street and its 1800s heritage shophouses — one of Singapore’s most photogenic streets
- Explore the Chinatown Heritage Centre for immersive stories of Singapore’s immigrant pioneers
- Grab a meal at Chinatown Complex Food Centre — Singapore’s largest hawker centre, home to Michelin-starred Liao Fan Soya Sauce Chicken
- For a sit-down dinner, try Keong Saik Road’s trendy restaurants like Burnt Ends or The Coconut Club for elevated local cuisine

Visit in the evening for lantern-lit streets and the best dinner atmosphere.
